

Okinawan Kobudo & Karate Camp

Offered by the:
A.K.K.W.
American Kenpo Karate and Weapons

Course Instructor:

- Sensei Shihan Crayton Moss. A 7th degree black belt with the A.K.K.W. who started training in martial arts in 1974. An expert in Kobudo, which are the traditional weapons of Okinawa, Hawaiian Kenpo and Okinawan Karate. He has been traveling out to Auburn for more than a decade to train our students in Kobudo and has just recently began teaching our students and instructors in traditional Okinawan Karate.

Seminar Highlights:

- Kids will learn the basics of the Bo staff and the partner form Bo/Bo
- Adults can learn two of the traditional Okinawan Karate forms and their practical self-defense applications.
- Learn the first three Bo staff forms and some of the basic applications of the staff movements.
- Learn several of the other Kobudo weapons forms (sai, tunfa, and kama).
- For those that attended in previous years there will also be time Saturday to review your previous forms with Shihan Moss and Sensei Bailey.
